

THE MORNING APPEAL.

THURSDAY DECEMBER 31

Eastern advertising office 230-234 Temple Court Building New York City, E. Kratz agent.

THE SENATORIAL FIGHT.

The Senatorial fight continues to puzzle the people who interest themselves in matters political. The APPEAL is not in the confidence of either side of the house, and can throw no light on the numerous enquiries nor verify or deny any of the thousand and one theories floating about Carson on the subject. It is merely our business to print the rumors, and let the public draw its own conclusions. It is claimed that Nixon is put in the fight by parties, who wish to pave the way to contest the claims for office for all candidates who do not spend the bulk of their time in Nevada and have the bulk of their property here also. That the claims of Stewart, to the Senatorship two years from now are also aimed at, and that the struggle will be the most hotly contested ever fought in this State. That the preliminaries have been in progress of incubation for some time, and that men are behind Nixon with the sinews of war, whom the public little dream of.

Meanwhile, the friends of Senator Jones claim that John P. will win hands down, and if any one wishes to give battle, he will give them the fight of his life. The Senator has never been charged with the lack of nerve or staying qualities in a political scuffle and Nixon is also credited a fair share of political sand.

The insinuation that Nixon is in the fight to bleed the Senator or assist any one else in doing so, receives but little credence as he has an honorable record and good reputation in Humboldt county, where he has lived for many years, and Humboldt will be at his back in the fight. Sensational developments are looked for during the coming week.

The Gazette says that Nate Roff will conduct the editorial columns of the Reno Journal, while Mr. Kelly attends to the duties of Governor's Private Secretary in Carson.

In a barrel of New York apples at San Bernardino, was found a letter from the farmer's daughter that helped to barrel the fruit. She wrote that they got 75 cents for the barrel, and asked the consumer to let her know what he was charged for them. Just $4 72 was his answer.

Served the purchaser right for not sending to Nevada for his apples.

The youngster who was arrested for selling a paper in San Francisco to a street car patron has been released, thanks to the efforts of two well known lawyers who appeared for him. It seems an outrage to have a boy like that a moment in jail, when big law breakers of all classes, are free to roam at large.

One of the organs says: "Tammany is camping on Senator Hill's trail." It might have added, "Tammany would get out of sight in a minute if the Senator would stop and look around."—Oroville Register.

In a Venezuela opera house recently an opera singer was arrested and lodged in jail for refusing to respond to an encore. The police dragged him off the stage bodily, amid the cheers of the audience, who demanded their money back and got it. This seems odd to them as he goes in this country. In Italy the audience can hiss a piece off the stage and the manager must be ready at a moment's notice to stop the performance and give his patrons a new deal. If the box office gets gay the mob demolishes the building.

Edward Erickson, who was starving in San Francisco and desired to go to jail, broke a United States mail box with a cobble stone. He was convicted in the United States Court and sentenced to one year's imprisonment.

A conspiracy against the Spanish government has been discovered at Manila, the capital of the Philippine Islands, and many notables have been arrested. The natives are in open rebellion against the Spanish government.

Fitzsimmons in an Omaha interview says that he could have put Sharkey out in the fourth round. This admission confirms the theory that he placed his own money on the proposition that Sharkey would last six rounds and let a lot of his friends down to do it.

A clock's hands indicate the time of day just as a merchant's "ad" indicates what he has to sell.

More banks busting every day and all in the States where "sound money" was the slogan of the campaign.

Tribe cures bruises and sprains.
